

I do not agree with this petition. Morse code testing must be retained if the license class includes CW privileges. It doesn't matter how many years the mode has been in use. Talking has been around a lot longer than the Morse code and yet no one considers "talking" to be an ancient mode of communication.